

FICCI SPORTS LEADERS DELEGATION TO FRANCE

(For Consulate General of India in Marseille)

FICCI Sports is leading a high-level delegation of 10-12 Indian sports industry leaders to France for strategic B2B/B2G engagements during India-France Year of Cooperation 2026. The mission centres on RIGES 2026 and Paris 2024 Olympic legacy learnings for India's CWG 2030 & Olympics 2036 ambitions.

1. PKSV Sagar, President, GMR Sports & Chair FICCI Sports Committee

GMR Sports is a leading sports enterprise with investments across multiple leagues including IPL, PKL, ILT20, SA20, and Major League Cricket, with a strong presence both in India and globally.

Mr. PKSV Sagar, President of GMR Sports, has been instrumental in driving the organization's multi-sport expansion and global footprint. His leadership in managing international franchises and developing grassroots initiatives makes him a key figure in global sports business collaborations.

2. Mr. Sanjay Adesara, Chief Business Officer, Adani Sportsline & Co Chair FICCI Sports Committee

Adani Sportsline, the sports arm of the Adani Group, is actively involved in building a holistic sports ecosystem in India, with investments across leagues, grassroots development, and high-performance programs, with ownership of multiple teams in Indian league ecosystem.

Mr. Sanjay Adesara, Chief Business Officer, leads business strategy, partnerships, and commercial growth for Adani Sportsline. With extensive experience in scaling sports properties and driving revenue-led models, he plays a key role in strengthening league ecosystems and expanding the group's footprint in the sports sector. His expertise in building sustainable sports business models and fostering strategic collaborations makes him a valuable participant for international partnerships and knowledge exchange.

3. Dr. Sankar UV, Director of Sports, Jain University

Jain University is one of India's leading private universities, known for its strong emphasis on sports excellence alongside academic achievement. The institution has developed world-class sports infrastructure and has produced numerous national and international athletes across disciplines.

Dr. Sankar UV, Director of Sports, leads the university's sports programs and athlete development initiatives. With a focus on high-performance training and grassroots development, he plays a key role in integrating sports into higher education, making him a valuable contributor to academic-sports collaborations and institutional partnerships.

4. Ms. Srishty Jain, Founder, CoLLearn Education

CoLLearn Education is an emerging platform focused on innovative learning solutions, integrating sports, education, and skill development to create holistic growth opportunities for youth.

Ms. Srishty Jain, Founder, is an entrepreneur working at the intersection of education and sports development. Her work emphasizes experiential learning and youth engagement, positioning her to explore collaborative models between sports education ecosystems in India and France.

5. Mr. Pankaj Kumar, Head Sports, OYO

OYO is a global hospitality and travel-tech company that has expanded into sports hospitality, providing tailored accommodation solutions for athletes, officials, and large-scale sporting events.

Mr. Pankaj Kumar, Government Channel & Sports Head, leads partnerships and large-scale coordination for institutional and sports-related engagements. His experience in managing logistics and hospitality for major events makes him a key enabler for international sports delegations and event collaborations.

6. Mr. Arjun Gupta, Director, Athletico Royal Private Limited

Athletico Royal Private Limited operates in the sports business ecosystem, focusing on athlete management, sports services, and development initiatives aimed at strengthening India's sports value chain.

Mr. Arjun Gupta, Director, is actively involved in building structured opportunities within the sports industry, contributing to athlete support systems and sports business expansion. His role aligns with fostering international collaborations in sports services and talent management along with a decades of sports retail experience.

7. Ms. Neha Mathur Rastogi, Founder & CEO, WordsWork Communications Consulting

WordsWork Communications is one of India's leading sports PR and communications agencies, managing high-profile sports brands, IPL franchises, and national federations.

Ms. Neha Mathur Rastogi, Founder & CEO, is a seasoned communications strategist with over 15 years of experience in sports media and brand positioning. She has played a key role in shaping narratives around Indian sports and athletes, making her an important voice in international sports storytelling and media collaborations.

8. Dr. Kanishka Pandey, Head, Centre for Sports Research, IMT Ghaziabad

IMT Ghaziabad, Centre for Sports Research is a pioneering academic initiative focused on sports philosophy, literacy, policy, and community impact through sports.

Dr. Kanishka Pandey, Head of the Centre, is a former badminton player and a leading academic in sports philosophy and law. His work bridges academia, policy, and grassroots development, contributing significantly to thought leadership in India's sports ecosystem.

9. Mr. Manendra Mungara, Proprietor, India Sports Floorings

India Sports Floorings is a specialized provider of high-quality sports infrastructure solutions, focusing on installation and maintenance of professional-grade sports flooring across indoor and outdoor facilities. The company has contributed to multiple institutional and private sports infrastructure projects, ensuring international standards in durability, safety, and performance.

Mr. Manendra Mungara, as Proprietor, brings hands-on expertise in sports infrastructure development, with a strong focus on execution and quality assurance. His experience in delivering customized flooring solutions across facilities positions him as a key stakeholder in India's growing sports infrastructure ecosystem, with potential for collaboration in international standardization and technology exchange.

10. Ms. Aakansha Thapak, Director, ISSO India

ISSO India works towards promoting structured sports participation and development programs, contributing to the growth of organized sports ecosystems in India.

Ms. Aakansha Thapak, Director, plays a key role in driving organizational initiatives and partnerships within the sports sector. Her involvement supports the expansion of structured sports programs and institutional engagement.

11. Mr. Gaurav Dixit, Director, ISSO India

ISSO India continues to contribute to India's sports ecosystem through organized initiatives and collaborative programs.

Mr. Gaurav Dixit, Director, is actively involved in operational and strategic execution within the organization. His experience supports the development of scalable sports initiatives and partnerships, both domestically and internationally.

12. Mr. Neerav Tomar, Founder, IOS Sports & Entertainment

IOS Sports & Entertainment is one of India's leading sports management and marketing companies, representing top athletes across disciplines including cricket, boxing, athletics, and more. The company has played a significant role in shaping athlete careers, managing endorsements, and building strong commercial pathways within Indian sports.

Mr. Neerav Tomar, Founder & CEO, is a prominent figure in India's sports business ecosystem, known for managing some of the country's most successful athletes and driving impactful brand partnerships. His deep understanding of athlete representation, commercial rights, and global sports markets positions him as a key stakeholder in discussions around talent management, sponsorship ecosystems, and international sports collaborations.